Corinne Haubensak's Resume

After completing her studies at the Ecole Supérieure de Commerce in Lausanne, Corinne Haubensak spent a year in London, where she obtained the Cambridge Certificate of Proficiency in English.

After several years in administrative roles in a range of industries, including Design, International Trade, IT and the Travel industry, she developed a passion for Human Resources, which gave her the motivation to move on to the next step in her professional development, the successful completion of the Brevet Fédéral en gestion des Ressources humaines. (The Swiss Federal HR Management Diploma).

This education gave her the skills necessary to develop an in-depth understanding of real-world operational HR. Corinne also currently holds a teaching chair in HR Management (Job and Skills Management, HR Recruitment, HR Marketing, HR Training and Development and Leadership).

She graduated from the HEC faculty of Geneva University with a more international-oriented, academic vision of the HR industry, mainly in strategic approaches and change management. Constantly striving to develop her skills, In 2011, Corinne completed her Masters Degree in Advanced Studies in Human Resource Management and Career Guidance at Geneva University.

Corinne's skills are build on three principle foundations:

- Extensive work experience based on more than 12 years as a line manager and HR director. During this period she reorganized and certified two HR departments, with 400 and 2,500 employees respectively. She had a leading role in change management and organisational projects for several large companies, including Crédit Suisse and La Poste.
- A desire to continually maintain and develop her theoretical knowledge in the HR domain. Together with her extensive work experience, this continuous personal development has given her the knowledge and expertise to provide HR consulting services to a number of national and international organisations, over the last two years.
- HRM and Leadership education and development roles. For more than 12 years, Corinne has been active in training HR, Corporate Economy and Management courses.

She is also an expert for the HR Federal Diploma and Leadership Diploma examinations.

As a public duty, she also presides as an official judge at the Tribunal des Prud'hommes (Labour Tribunal of Geneva) and the Chambre Patrimoniale Cantonale.
